

Mr. Woelki

On Nday8 I informed you about NATURE'S expectation that you personally explain Cologne your Commitment to Truth before looking for another job respectively apprenticeship which would otherwise be difficult to find.

I told you, moreover, to forward my email to your boss (I only know his "artist"s name:) Franziskus in which I explained him that nobody on Earth believes the nonsense he preaches and that in the name of Jesus his ridiculous Apostel's creed is replaced by the simple Commitment to Truth about life and love (compare my meanwhile in a little narration framed and published email in thebeginningofapenfriendship.pdf on www.familienzuechtigung.com).

Neither you nor your chef replied nor, as far as I know, complied.

Instead the boulevard press reported about a generous audience granted by proud Franziskus to a nearly naked catholic colleague, another artificial artist, on his knees who kissed his hand as demonstrated on a picturesque photo in order to compromise real artists around the world who have been and are abused by your limited catholic church for an eternity and treated as antique, middle aged and modern slaves. Be aware and tell Franziskus that neither any artist nor any other sister and brother were amused or even impressed by his helpless and desperate try to pretend arrogant ignorance of not only this truth instead of a polite and appropriate reply to NATURE's expectation.

Then boulevard press reported yesterday that your blasphemous disobedience culminated in founding a charity called Rogamus-Stiftung that was proudly joined by Franziskus as honorary member only a few days later in order to promote ghostly callings. However, ghostly callings do not exist. Calling of spirit, i. e. of Holy Spirit, may be possible but claiming to promote this only holy calling would be presumptuous and, in the case of you catholic clerics, obviously hypocritical. Mother Earth and Holy Spirit are a unit and belong together. Callings of Holy Spirit would, therefore, never address celibate mutants. Earth and Holy Spirit love LIFE they spend room for, i. e., all natural plants animals human beings and their souls, like their owns and are pleased by them returning their love gratefully. Additionally they generally and gladly praise living beings of all natural kinds loving each other as well as treating each other accordingly. This comprehensive multi mutual LOVE is the essential unifying substance of (not only my) individual collective spiritual consciousness of Earth and the whole Universe (i. e., including all of its stars planets and moons of course).

LOVE is the essence of the UNIVERSE and its NATURE

You know, NATURE (as in the following Universe Earth and Life are jointly referred to) authorized me to represent them at Cologne's left Rhine bank in the evening of 16 April 1, N age, and confirmed my authorization the following afternoon of 17 April 1 in Königswinter in front of the honorary consulate of Trinidad and Tobago. At least that is why I expected a response of you two catholic clerics to my emails mentioned above.

And, you know, everybody knows that you witnessed the miracle of unique universal love sent down to Cologne bedded in divine bell ringing from Eastern direction in this (real) summer night (dream) never heard by anybody before perhaps except for William Shakespeare (I am ashamed that I have not read Shakespeare's Summer Night Dream).

And, you know, you acknowledged your attendance when you blasphemously switched off electric lights at the left bank shortly after this forever warming and comforting universal gift of love. You instead did not feel it and switched off the lights. It was no unfortunate coincidental power breakdown. It was the immediate catholic reaction on my expressed expectation of carnival being celebrated next time in Rome, too (venue of final event: Colosseum), in order to burn the World Nubbel (you may explain Franziskus this Cologne typical reference) as I referred the pope to before in various alternative narrations (alternativerzaehlungen) who is terrorizing Mother Earth and Life on her for over 2.000 years now. I proposed this appropriate punishment for his countless hard crimes beginning with the murder of Jesus and not ending in middle age when his predecessors used to burn not guilty, hence all other than catholic, metaphysicists accusing them as witches who would not catch fire in order to prove this accusation and even persisted long time in this useless way of proof after it had failed and their victims were burned.

So, although you ignore that I represent NATURE you are aware of it. I did not apply for this honor (serious) and would never have imagined it. You yourself challenged NATURE manipulating consciousness and abusing me as another poor and unpaid artist (in literature) despite my law education.

Before this background I am obliged to let you know that NATURE is violated and disgusted by your hidden hate preaches in your houses of an alleged angry god instead of a loving one as you can call NATURE as well if you want to. Your ruse is preaching peace instead of freedom and love what would provide for it. Preaching peace is safe because a self comprehensive wish of everybody why nobody would contradict and hides your method of securing your evil metaphysical might by separating Earth populations from each other in implemented caves with variable pressure mechanisms and people milking provisions but election stable and even change of political system resistant remote controllable structures called states with unnatural frontiers not only like in Germany and Korea for example. Then you split the single separated populations into different social classes and within them you sow discord between genders generations and even sisters and brothers. As I explained above neither highly armed "protected" state frontiers outbound nor highly "securing" corset state mechanisms inbound guarantee peaceful life on Earth. Free LOVE does. Your secretly and metaphysically controlled states of the western hemisphere, in contrary, serve your eternal bellum mundum in our days known as hegemonies claim of your senators in the Capitol of the United States of America. Metaphysics is NATURE. Metaphysical control is abuse of NATURE and called holocaust. Holocaust is genocide, not only when some millions of death victims have to be counted, one single death victim of a certain attacked people or other group of individuals is sufficient for the qualification of genocide. Moreover, since the attempt is punishable you could even commit genocide without a single death victim.

I am not only entitled by NATURE's authorization to accuse you for your evil holocaust crimes but also because I am a victim of them too only still living since your attempted murder (via your invented HIV and letting your University hospitals teach an infected person would not be infective if she or he only took the medicine regularly) was not yet successful. So my complaint is not only popular but a result of personal concern too. Additionally my deceased Buddhist wife Pat from the (by the way, real peace loving) Kingdom of Thailand was murdered by your holocaust as well as the brother of my fiancé who herself is another one of your HIV victims. You might defend the opinion that Pat was not attacked as Thai national since the people of Thailand was not attacked but she was murdered as my wife in the run of the Holocaust attack against me and the German people. So it was not a simple murder it was infective enough to pull the Thai people onto the current list of your genocide victims. For the victims list of your Jewish genocide between 1933 and 1945 compare my BriefStAinGaus9218_5101_scan.pdf (published in my literate estate "Kafka's Erbe" on www.alternativerzaehlungen.com).

Of course this is impossible without automatic abuse of our children too.

Your holocaust initially committed and taught in your first second third (third Reich 1933 – 1945) and now fourth holy roman empire of German nations has long since developed to an evil cancer carcinoma spreading around not remaining within the unnatural frontiers of the western hemisphere. This is why the whole Earth community is concerned and observe my "legal" case closely that I filed as criminal action in Cologne and in the same time as human rights violation reporting complaint (Menschenrechtsverletzungenberichterstattungsbeschwerde) before international authorities of doubtless integrity. One hundred years ago your holocaust cancer tumor located resp. placed in Germany had spread already heavily. International polysicians (led by polysurgeons) decided that Mother Earth needed a hard core operation, world war 1, to be followed by an intensive chemotional therapy of Versailles Infusions. Unfortunately this chemotional therapy did not have any effect. The tumor grew for a short period (macroscopic) invisibly and in 1933 the diagnose of the relapse was not disputable any more. International polysicians were consulted again by their patient Earth and did not know what to do. They shun the necessary immediate profound and clean local/regional operation to remove the tumor thoroughly and forever what they considered as too risky for too long until it had caused so many metastases that a real mammoth operation became unavoidable again to save their patient Mother Earth. World war 2. It became such a complicated operation that it needed to be followed by various stand by teams of polymedical experts who advised the surgeons during the operation in Casablanca Teheran and Jalta until the surgery part of the treatment eventually was completed on 8 May 1945. And then, do you know what they did then?

After this extremely weakening operation with very high blood lost the international team of polysicians now led by polynecologists became unexplainably, even mysteriously, nervous confused and not cooperative any more, and made inexcusable pupil's mistakes. Disregarding the obvious resistance risk they decided to treat Mother again with chemotional instead of alternative hormotional therapy even using nearly the same substances only renamed into Marshal Infusions. They believed (according to this ridiculous Apostel's creed) that they needed the infusion ports immediately and used the same diplomatic stuff for it to inject their chemotional stupidity education programs via (probably various) foreign state secretaries and offices around mom's body, the German AA (Auswärtiges Amt) of course the most important one.

And you know what? Again I did not work which was no surprise. Every-natural-body could have predicted it. Eighty horrible years later during which Mami did not recover at all new international polysicians face the same situation as in 1937/8. This time, however, they are much more experienced and, by the way, have found the reason for the mysterious disharmonic confusion of their colleagues after 8 May 1945. And today, moreover, they scanned Mama via radioactive PET-CT and did not find Toby (the Tubercel, (nor Higgs)) but little peter an unbelievable medical miracle. Little peter pointed at some major slowed down body functions which only did not collapse yet. Mother Earth instead fell into a wake coma so that the most problematic Berlin dysfunction since momentarily even completely failing only needs to be sealed and replaced by the new Rhineland function the F.Land n.EBGBR a modern health system (instead of medical standard) this time implemented lege artis and without foregoing operation but, nevertheless, unconditional tumor capitulation maybe on 1 January 2 (compare ©bridge if you need, not for mysterious but miraculous, synopsis purposes) or earlier.

So, instead of going on to challenge me and attack my love everywhere and of trying to suppress my voice by infringing major intellectual property (google certificates for example) to prevent my internet access and blasphemously using my personal and (due to your biologic manipulation) "transparent" passwords in order to access my homepage and delete or change my literature you should have walked over the numerous bridges I built for everybody who takes or took part in the unnatural self destroying holocaust crimes. Anyhow, you stick to your artist slavery scheme which presumes poorness under existence minimum and try to prevent me from publishing my literature, hence, from living on my own without (extreme) lack of natural life quality.

The walk over my bridges, however, would have required balanced natural hormotions which are not possible for celibate clerics. You might not understand yet. Hormotions is a word invented by me and means hormonal emotions since emotions are provided and regulated by hormones of which gender hormones are by far the most vital. They provide for continuance of Life and spend initially the emotion of lovely luck being poured out with the culminating act of love. Moreover regularly spent they keep sensitive and capable to feel pain even of (M)others therefore of empathy not only of pretended sympathy since suffering the pain of others is impossible. One can feel empathy with you facing death penalty but after execution you are dead, the sympatric one even a passionate sympatric is not. Ach so, that is why I have to help myself often enough, being blasphemously separated from my fiancé as the major of your holocaust patterns, what does not provide for the same lovely luck but feels good too anyway and spends my natural balance.

I would recommend you try it but believe it might be too late now. You celibate pretend not even now taking notice of my public complaints as just explained on the abstract basis while everybody else does. You do not notice the abuse of my person my family and NATURE in general every day visible when harmless little dogs suddenly become aggressive and bark at or even attack my extremely relaxed and peaceful Samy without any reason.

Your melting evil ghost - you can smell it when it is sweat or pissed (by my dog) out – does not only penetrate animals who immediate- and suddenly change their characteristic behavior but human beings as well who are used by your catholic ghost in this moment as unconscious and if not strong enough permanently as conscious but weak tools of your crimes like my mother and brother. On a regular basis your influence leads to loveless and often enough soon aggressive behavior between life partners close friends and near relatives placing more bricks in the walls within their thought controlled communities and families. You would better have left us kids (of Mother Earth) alone! My honest but too late (sorry) advice.

Both, my mother and my brother are defendants against my legal criminal action and either soon punished (eg72hrsperweekhardwork10daysoffpa) for their open and evident contributions to your non fucking celibate crimes or truly blamed as evil criminals forever. I am going to know this quite soon and then either being compensated and lately (but not yet too late) honored modest- but accordingly or leaving your German holocaust stove. In any case I will not be available any more for your attempts to suppress the German population abusing my abused transparent but sound mind. Your schemes and methods, however, are and will be better than ever known everywhere on Earth and your church is going to be removed from her very soon. You know, you are only a bunch of little more than 200 dick suckers (please excuse me, cc. virtual and online readers of "Kafka's Erbe"!) terrorizing the whole world. This is not going to be a big problem any longer as it was before. Trust me!

Your boss knows it too. The fact that he followed your invitation to join your blasphemous commoninjurious charity so quickly shows his growing worries as well as his again infamous preach to prisoners (like me) on the occasion of his opulent fast time as his most recent arrogant metaphoric abuse of language that humiliates LIFE on more occasions than kinds of living beings exist instead of defending his LCC against my legitimate accusations via proper legal ways.

Very truly
