good morning soldiers,

generally we have seen (especially peter has seen and heard in the same night from day 16 to 17 moon 4 year 1), that invisibility (the colour in the agenda is a mix of red and green) would be nothing exciting if the cleric did not conduct their holocaust plays on collective consciousness scenes nor used metaphysics (applied microphysics) for unnatural purposes, i. e. abused microphysics blasphemously. In this night however, was not only friendly (acoustic) in opposed to hostile (still visible when it became zappenduster (sudden-dark)) invisibility to hear but the difference between profane and divine invisibility. In this respect the night was unthinkable unique!

Their first holocaust play in history created the illusion of a wrathful godfather in heaven who sacrificed his own son and they keep this illusion up to date in that they occupy our other side already in their lifetimes for about 2000 years now, systematically at least for about seven centuries already.

However, it is our other side and we (humans who are still alive) have to defend (to free) it (against/from inhumans (civilized barbarians (in cassocks (with roman collars) robes and suites) who are still alive), is what the true invisible

divine acknowledgment of the human defence case made very clear ..

The other side is as profane as this side. Divine is beyond. (In the occident) the catholic church has occupied the other side (fully in middle age (and since built trans dimensional catholic communication infrastructures into the established mundane governments of the population. Here education ministries prescribe the curriculum (vitae collectivum) what provides for the collective receptiveness for stupid beliefs since kindergarten age)) and teach the believe that it stands above profane life (what is disproved now) and that it is inerrant (what Copernicus disproved already).

They defended their inerrant claim as brutal (Copernicus Giordano Galileo) as they defended their factual metaphysics monopoly against about 50000 witches and magicians (maybe 1 per cent of them really were good illusionists. The others were burned for deterrence purposes and most of them because they were female.) which actually was defending their occupied colony, our other side, at any price.

The catholic middle age inquisition agency (high belief congregation) was unbelievable brutal.

The roman catholic church defended their assumed interpretation lordliness regarding all invisible against everybody, including other christian or even catholic clerics like Clemens VII sur le pont d' Avignon and their high belief congregation still does today.

This was their middle age defence front (better (than them) scientists and other illusionists). Their offence fronts "church services" were in middle age somewhat relieved by their new invisible battle academies when roman-catholic church endowed universities grew all over out of European soil now.

Let us look at the nature of the other side and of our essential consciousness types again before we catch up here.

There are two communication channels. The sensual and the spiritual communication.

Communication is transport of information. Channels mean data carriers on this side for sensual information, spiritual information is transported on different carriers (for example different wave lengths) on the other side. For participation in this communication you do not have to be dead. It does not mean, to invade the other side microphysically in your lifetime already what is unnatural. It is just to feel the other side, to receive its waves, already alive which is natural and vitally essential (but blasphemously systematically suppressed).

The suppression of natural collective communication damages the collective mental health of the population which consists of living beings and living spirits. Recall our fatherland definition: “our sisters and brothers children grandchildren mothers and fathers, grandparents and grand-grandparents with or without bodies (how ever both of them of Flora Fauna and Mankind)!” It is the equivalent to damaging individual mental health what public health authorities (their psychiatric services) do if the individuals resist all psychological suppression attempts and insist in participating in the spiritual communication.

Our three essential consciousness types share only two communication levels which accord to our two (pre and after death) life sides. This shows that spiritual communication is not under death precondition and that our collective consciousness is related with our ancestors (who are invisibly around us) via the natural common use of the same spiritual information carriers.

When they occupied the other side the clerics limited the spiritual information traffic in the same time and excluded mundane human life in general from it. Then they selectively accredited their statistically undetectable might addict class who they had formed and then recruited in their universities. They established their state servant and secretary networks (lead establishment) under the patronage of their arch dioceses within European populations and adjusted successively growing legislations accordingly.

Under the patronage of their arch dioceses as well and instructed by catholic universities the might addict class then established eventually their pan population conspiracies (CIGoH and sisters) who may make use of spiritual information carriers too. However, under strict crime reservation only!

And still today on grounds of these centuries old structures (we have to keep this in mind and to come back to it) other than criminal information is not permitted as well as the rest of the population (99+%) are still excluded from their own second communication form as much as possible.

How is this possible? It is a natural form of communication.

It is possible by evil abuse. The exclusion of the population from its own spiritual communication means to destroy the soul (clinical murder) of the population and is aim result and side effect of the enemies psychological warfare. Left behind is a herd of human mass resources (like a human spare parts collection in case of an individual brain death).

Voters, tax payers, social contributors, and of course warriors (combatants cut loose from head and soul). Some groups are very suitable potential social enemy images too, like Arabic clan criminals who are next going to take away sin and sentence of the true aggressors (I assume you have read peters email to the SPIEGEL investigative team). Jews can sing this song very well already.

The invisible psychological war scenes are the collective consciousness stages on which the holocaust plays find place. All of them located on the other side! The other side is the catholic battle field. No wonder that many try to avoid/ignore it as good as possible. Whole war battle fields on the other side! However, very effective on both sides. The holocaust war (component (if in connection with other war forms)) is a mere consciousness war (-component). Occupy not only the other side but control and manipulate as much consciousness as possible. Consciousness of both sides. Collective consciousness. Block spiritual communication and replace it by mass media propaganda and break the collective will in the same time. Suppressing the sources in order to block their spiritual contact means to break their individual will since they naturally want to unfold fully of course, on behalf of the whole population who naturally want them to unfold likewise. If they give up (believe their psychiatrists for example and hold themselves for schizophrenic get psych pharmacy and are cut off again), their complete environment buckles softly. When the collective will is softly broken the population can be driven anywhere. St. Petersburg (back then Stalingrad) for example.

Break as many individual wills as you need until the collective will is broken. In the middle age that was done much more visibly and not at all softly since they could not identify transparent individuals easy enough. So they just burned as many individuals and more as necessary to have the same effect.

For about hundred years now, however, when the first blood type systems have been detected they know how to find the transparent minds and only need to terrify enough of them (extremely hard) what they definitely do in order to break the collective will (comparably soft now).

Back to middle age and the pontifical consciousness war battle academies which the pope founded as donations in Europe's worldwide cultural centres like in Padua (13th century), Paris Prague Vienna Heidelberg Cologne (14th century) Tokyo (late middle age, Sophia University).

They research scientific knowledge but teach catholic beliefs.

Pope Urban VI proclaimed in the deed of donation of the university of Cologne on 21st May 1388:

“Due diligently and qua apostolic authority we decree to do god honour and to forward the right belief that in Cologne now be and shall forever be a university according the model of the university Sorbonne”.

The romans began their holocaust war (-component) with the murder of Jesus on the (back then probably nearly) global collective consciousness stage. In the fifth century they resorted completely to cleric, this was when mundane crimes and wars became the component of their true and uninterrupted holocaust war.

In the big middle age offensive the quality of their consciousness attacks reached higher levels due to their growing university and scholar networks. The foundation of the Cologne university (after Heidelberg shortly before) can be considered as the initial middle age attack on natural consciousness (in aggressive defence of the occupied other side) in our geographical defence zone Germany, donation deed the war declaration.

They wage their holocaust (consciousness) wars in order to take over human people remote control. Precondition and basis is a profound head start in consolidated knowledge. This is then hidden, constantly secretly expanded in order to always keep the head start and in lectures replaced by the right beliefs.

Most essential most basic natural consciousness knowledge itself. In the middle age expertise of the theological faculty. Nowadays of the natural sciences (physics) faculty (quant physics of natural consciousness and applied metaphysics of the abuse of it).

The right belief implemented regarding metaphysics is the fairy tale that it be a basic subject of philosophy (which is not true because philosophy is the science of the right non beliefs, and), which implies that it had nothing to do with natural sciences and less then ever their application.

catholic r&d activities carried out by all faculties, in middle age especially law and medicine (natural human science), constantly improve their war methods and increase effectiveness and efficiency in collective will breaking skills.

They stepped on the next quality level with the detection of our blood type systems what allowed them the final and systematic waiver of (macroscopic) visible (mass) terror (to break the collective will) in the favour of extreme systematic and precise (macroscopic invisible) psycho terror attacks on those individuals (that identifiable group of individuals) whose biologically open minds send the terror, created on collective consciousness stages, on spiritual carriers back into this side and the brains (conscious or at least unconscious) of their fellow environment.

The right belief implemented in occident regarding blood systems is that they are needed to be known to avoid blood transfusion complications only.

The orient knows (at least feels) more. In some regions people (folks) relate different character features to different blood types for example.

Invisible holocaust kill will battle fields bloom on the occupied other side and cause more and more total (i. e. on both sides and in every hindsight) damage.

Immediate and effective human defence action is overdue. The eternal aggression more than ever the second clear war declaration after the first one of Urban VI in our defence zone cannot be ignored any longer.

I may summarize:

The civilized war is waged on every enemy level, three mundane and two clerical levels. On the mundane levels inhuman collective life conditions are implemented legally and additional random failure of the legal system in the individual persons in danger who need legal assistance is organised and enforced. The cleric play lord of the kingdom come (to them already) which they fully occupy what means that they occupy this vertical part fully of our whole fatherland.

They are certainly included in our initial move to free the fatherland. And I think now, they should not only be included. They are the ultimate heads and enjoy absolute priority. We dedicate them the opening of our operation. On christmas eve. Then we only need to collect the cardinals from their midnight services in their huge cathedrals.

CNN Al Jazeera and il corriere de la terra sera may kindly report this piece of world breaking news.

We continue the operation in the early hours of the first christmas day when we bring our troops and leopards in their new (park) positions and collect the constitutional organs during both holidays. Except for the mps for who we can then wait until they come back to work.

Eventually the bloody christians are going to receive the christmas presents that they deserve!

Major, what kind of international response do you expect? The national coup is world breaking news already but maybe still an inner business. Can we defend this view regarding the closing of the german christian churches too? Vatican certainly is going to protest!

And send their seven swiss guards?

Maybe not them but perhaps quick reaction forces from our neighbourhoods to protect the EU, not the Vatican, of course. Spain may arrest catalonian separatists. The EU certainly would want to repress German separatists.

Good point.

Let us step on international levels in our coming meetings.

For today we are finished. The outlook on our next agenda:
